From the Pastor

Pascha [or Easter] is the central event, the time of transformation, of becoming a resurrected people, God's new people.

On this Sunday of all Sundays, Pascha, we celebrate our transformation as a new people. When Christ rose from the grave, death and all other "principalities and powers" that seek to entomb God's will were forever defeated.

Easter is not simply the miracle of a dead person raised from the grave, but a celebration of power that can shatter death in order that people can freely serve the God of life.

In the resurrection of Christ, God's awesome purposes were on display, revealing a radically new world of peace and harmony and equality and mutuality, about which we can only dream. The Lord of the future has been disclosed to us. Both the incarnation at Christmas and the resurrection at Easter testify to the lordship of Christ. ...

On Easter we glimpse a new landscape — the age to come — and experience a sense of holy awe at the significance of the resurrection for human life. The shape of the age to come reveals a new people of God, a new humanity.

When Christ was crucified, humanity died with him on Calvary. But on Easter morning, a new world was born — raised up with the crucified and risen Christ. Bursting the bonds of death, the first human being of a new human race, Jesus Christ, appeared among those who crucified him. In the midst of the old sin-struck world, God gave the world a new beginning, a new humanity. By faith the old guilt-ridden humanity was born again into the new forgiven humanity of Jesus Christ.

Ever since, here and there, clusters of the new people of God live according to the new social order of the new age.

Therefore, Easter faith recalls the past, especially the awesome act of God in raising the crucified Christ from the grave. Easter hope looks to the promised future, to that which awaits us. Easter love celebrates the presence of the crucified and risen Christ who is now among us, reconciling us as one people. Resurrection faith asserts that by grace we are born again into the new humanity of Jesus Christ. We are called to new life for God and for neighbors. As representatives of the new humanity we walk in newness of life.

An excerpt from the Companion to the Book of Common Worship (Geneva Press, 2003, 107-108)

Pastor Cindy at City Hall

I have been asked to speak from the Christian perspective about why Christians should support our Muslim neighbors. Two reasons came to mind: 1st we are all of one family, and 2nd, As Christians, we are called to embrace all others with grace-filled hospitality & unconditional love.

First of all, we are cousins. Judaism, Islam, and Christianity are all descendants of Abraham. Our great great great great 10 x great grandfather in common is Abraham. WE are all related – all from the same lineage. WE are all one – believing in the same ONE God.

In this season of Lent, we remember == We are all created from ashes to ashes and dust to dust. We are created from star dust. And to dust we all shall return. We are formed from the earth and to the earth we are recycled.

Secondly, In our faith that follows the way of Jesus Christ, we are taught the parable of the Good Samaritan that Jesus told to explain the universal law: "Love your neighbor as yourself."

You may remember, the Samaritan was considered an outsider, the alien, the group of people in that region that were judged and feared by the majority at that time.

By telling this now famous parable, Jesus taught that the Samaritan people, (who his disciples assumed were not worthy of relationship), were actually the people they should imitate. After the Samaritan risked his own life to provide healing and hospitality through compassion, Jesus said: "go and do likewise."

Jesus taught that those who we may judge as the "other" may in reality be great role models of compassion for all of us. Islam teaches: "No one of you is a believer until he desires for his brother that which he desires for himself."

Our Presbyterian Church of the Roses is hosting a series of classes on Wednesday evenings during Lent about Islam that dispels misunderstandings and emphasizes our common beliefs. It is titled: Love your (Muslim) neighbor as Yourself.

I grew up Presbyterian in Iowa and never met a Muslim person until college. It took personally making friends with a Muslim woman to help me realize Islam and Christianity have many beliefs in common.

It is by personal relationship we learn the most about each other because when you care about someone you deeply listen and learn.

Dr. Eric Barreto once said: "If the Bible is clear about anything, it is crystal clear about our call to welcome the exile, the refugee, the stranger. Such a call draws us from the fear that our sins feed, to a radical hospitality that is the very essence of the good news of Jesus."

Calling us to be welcoming is the work of God's grace. Let us NOT be persuaded by fear and believe the lies that accompany it. Some want us to be afraid of our neighbors and tempt us to violate our deepest convictions.

We ought not let anyone distort our perspective about who our neighbors are nor distort the people God has made us to be: a people of fearless welcome and persistent hope who are called to embrace our diverse global family with unconditional love.

*Thank you,
Pastor Cindy*

ROSEBUD PRESCHOOL

The last four weeks have been busy. We spent two weeks on a "Making/Tinkering" curriculum. The activities were tied to books. After reading, Aggy Peck, Architect and If I Built a House, the kids worked together to build what turned into a castle. They moved on to Not a Box! and created all sorts of things from boxes. Next came The 3 Little Pigs Build a House. They experimented with materials to see which built the strongest houses. The curriculum then moved on to two weeks of rainbows. They have been finding out how a rainbow is created and experimenting with shadows, reflections, refraction, and crystals. At circle this week, after a couple of attempts they successfully created a lava lamp. The school has its Easter Egg Hunt and brunch on Saturday, April 8 from 10 am until 12 pm. All are welcome.

COMMITTEE UPDATES

WORSHIP & ARTS

A Lenten Vesper service is scheduled for 5:30 p.m. on Friday, April 7th. This service includes special music, prayer, time for contemplation, communion by intinction, and a message from Pastor Cindy. Children are welcome and provided with a place to play in the Sanctuary during the service.

Palm Sunday on April 9th is a celebration of Jesus' triumphant entry into Jerusalem. We observe it with palm branches, a processional and with special music.

Maundy Thursday on April 13th commemorates Jesus' last supper, his washing of the feet of his disciples, and the celebration of the Holy Sacrament of Communion. The word Maundy means "command" and refers to Jesus' command for us to love one another. We celebrate Maundy Thursday with a washing of hands by the Deacons, a shared meal, and the celebration of Communion in table groups. If you haven't had an opportunity to fill out a sign-up form, call the church office to reserve a space.

Good Friday is the day we solemnly commemorate the crucifixion of Jesus on the cross. Worship begins at 5:30 p.m. on April 14th, includes Good Friday liturgy and symbolism, and concludes with the burning of the prayers for repentance which were tacked to the cross on Ash Wednesday.

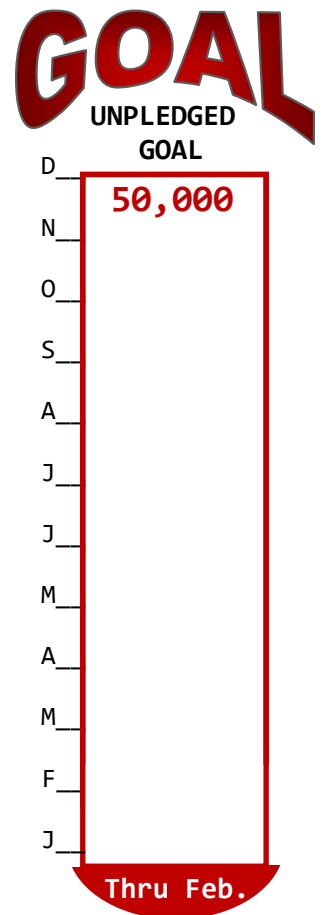

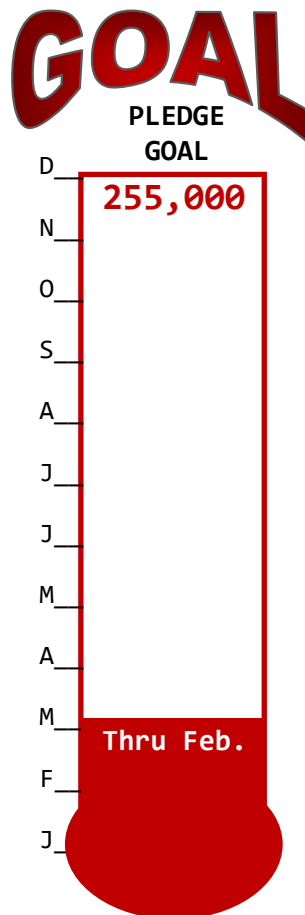

Easter is the celebration of Jesus' rising from the dead into Eternal Life. We celebrate Easter at 10:00 a.m. on April 16th. Bring flowers to attach to the cross on the front lawn. The Sanctuary will be decorated with flowers to take home or deliver to the homebound. Our service will celebrate Easter with a choir cantata entitled Believe.

MEDICATION SAFETY

by Deborah Wolff-Baker

Medication errors are one of the leading causes of adverse events and hospitalizations in older adults. Optimizing drug therapies is essential for maximizing function and quality of life.

- Do you have questions about your medications?
- Do you know why you are taking them?
- Are you sure you are taking them to make the most of their beneficial effects and minimize unwanted side effects?
- Do you ever wonder if some of them could be streamlined?
- Could you be taking a potentially inappropriate medication

Deborah will conduct comprehensive medication reviews during the Health Ministry Blood Pressure Screening clinic after worship on the 4th Sundays. If you would like a medication review, please bring your current prescription medication bottles, including eye drops, supplements, herbals and other over-the-counter medications in a brown paper bag to the Church library. She will help you understand your medications and provide you with a list of ideas and recommendations based on best practices for older adult prescribing to take to your healthcare provider for discussion.
