

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH OF THE ROSES

Reaching Out with Nurturing Love to All God's People

For A Father

The longer we live,
The more of your presence
We find, laid down,
Weave upon weave
Within our lives.

The quiet constancy of your gentleness
Drew no attention to itself,
Yet filled our home
With a climate of kindness
Where each mind felt free
To seek its own direction.

As the fields of distance
Opened inside childhood,
Your presence was a sheltering tree
Where our fledgling hearts could rest.

The earth seemed to trust your hands
As they tilled the soil, put in the seed,
Gathered together the lonely stones.
Something in you loved to inquire
In the neighborhood of air,
Searching its transparent rooms
For the fallen glances of God.

The warmth and wonder
of your prayer
Opened our eyes to glimpse
The subtle ones who
Are eternally there.

Whenever, silently, in off moments,
The beauty of the whole thing
overcame you,
You would gaze quietly out upon us,
The look from your eyes
Like a kiss alighting on skin.

There are many things
We could have said,
But words never wanted
To name them;
And perhaps a world
That is quietly sensed
Across the air
In another's heart
Becomes the inner companion
To one's own unknown.

INTROIT "It is Good to Sing Your Praises" by Leavitt's Christian Lyre, 1830

*CALL TO WORSHIP (from Psalm 92)

One: It is good to give thanks to the LORD, to sing praises to God!

All: To declare your steadfast love in the morning, and your faithfulness by night.

One: For God has made us glad by his work;

All: Grace upon grace has been poured into our lives.

One: On this day, we speak of what we believe.

All: At the works of God's hands we sing for joy! Let us worship God!

*HYMN #367

"Come Ye Thankful People Come"

George Elvey, 1858

*CONGREGATIONAL PRAYER

All: Mighty God, to you belong the mysteries of the universe.

You transform shepherds into kings, the smallest seeds into magnificent trees, and hardened hearts into loving ones. We come here today, thankful for fathers on earth and in heaven. May we become the loving parents of the earth that you want us to be. Help us to love neighbors and children who are in our global family whether blood relatives or spiritual relatives. May we strive to be the unconditionally loving compassionate and wise role model to those in our midst as you are to us. Thank you for giving us this chance to have a positive impact on the world we are so blessed to live in. Bless us with your life-giving Spirit, re-create us in your image, and shape us to your purposes, through Jesus Christ. Amen.

WORDS OF AFFIRMATION

One: Do not lose heart! God seeks to strengthen our souls, filling us with forgiveness, wonder, and joy!

All: Glory to you, God of mercy and grace. You want only the best for us, and so we sing praises to you. Thanks be to God, we are forgiven! Amen.

(Silent prayer for our personal requests)

One: We thank you for role modeling to us what a loving parent should be.

All: With faith as big as the ocean and as small as mustard seeds, we trust that you hear our prayers. Thank you for helping us love you with our whole being and willingly share the concerns of our neighbors as we pray the prayer you taught us saying: (The Lord's Prayer). Amen.

CHORAL RESPONSE

*HYMN Tune from #145 "You Formed Us in Your Image, Lord" by Carolyn Gillette: GREENSLEEVES 8.7.8.7 with Refrain "What Child Is This?"

*You formed us in your image, Lord;
You call us your own children.
In you, each one is loved, adored —
Unique among the millions.
Bless, Lord, the families.
Who know the joy: Christ claims and frees!
Bless, too, the ones who weep,
Forgetting that you love them.*

*You made our homes to honor you,
With love the strong foundation.
In serving God and neighbor too,
We find our life's vocation.
Bless families large and small,
Who love and serve you when you call.
Bless, too, the ones who fear —
Whose trust and love are shattered.*

*In home and church our faith is formed;
We learn your love and caring.
From here we're called to face the storm,
Your love and justice bearing.
Each day your Spirit sends!
We go to strangers, neighbors, friends.
Peace, justice, joy we bring
To all your human family.*
