CELEBRATION OF WORSHIP

PRELUDE The King of Love My Shepherd Is by Robin Milford

WELCOME AND ANNOUNCEMENTS

INTROIT Jesus, the Light of the World by George D. Elderkin, 1890

*CALL TO WORSHIP (responsively)

One: Jesus is on our side!

All: Come and rejoice.

One: Are you suffering?

All: Come and find peace.

One: Are you joyful?

All: Come and sing.

One: Do you need healing?

All: Come and pray.

One: Jesus is on our side!

All: Come and rejoice as we worship God!

*HYMN #24 God Who Stretched the Spangled Heavens C. Cameron, 1967

*CONGREGATIONAL PRAYER (responsively)

One: Creating and rescuing God, your power amazes us. Yet even in our amazement, we take too long to turn to you, forgetting that you are the power that makes and saves and sustains us.

All: Even when we claim your power, we often do so for our own success and comfort, ignoring your command to use your power on behalf of the weak, the small, and the vulnerable. In Jesus Christ, you show us that you are on the side of all people, but never at the expense of the weakest among us.

One: Forgive us when we try to hoard you for ourselves and try to control who has access to your love. Forgive us when our greed, our control, and our scandals keep others from knowing you. Redeem us and transform us, O God.

All: Open our hearts, our lives, and our ministries, that we may become a doorway to your realm. Amen

*WORDS OF AFFIRMATION (responsively)

One: God turns our sorrow into gladness and our times of mourning into celebration.

All: God hears, heals and forgives us. Glory to God! Amen

HYMN The Persian King Was Angry Carolyn Gillette
(Tune: Llangloffan 7.67.6 D "Lead On, O King Eternal")

*The Persian king was angry and told his queen to "Go!"
For when he'd called her to him, she'd turned and answered,
"No!" Soon many fair young women were summoned to the throne.
Young Esther was among them; her life was not her own.*

*Now Esther had no power, no strength on which to stand,
For she was just an orphan within a foreign land.
But soon her life was changing; the king loved her the best.
Could she become a blessing, as she herself was blessed?*

*She had a loving mentor, her uncle Mordecai;
But Haman did not like him and wanted him to die.
So Haman, full of anger, convinced the king to say
The Jewish folk among them would all be killed one day.*

*In Esther's new position, she wondered what to do.
She longed to save her people, to save her uncle, too.
"See!" Mordecai said plainly, "You have to take a risk.
Perhaps you have been chosen for such a time as this!"*

*Queen Esther saved her people by doing what was hard.
She risked her life to help them; she played the winning card.
O God, may we, like Esther, see what we're called to do —
Then live with faith and courage to change the world for you.*

PRAYER OF THE PEOPLE

One: We praise your abiding guidance, O God, for you sent us Jesus, our Teacher and Messiah, to model for us the way of love for the whole universe. We offer these prayers of love on behalf of ourselves and our neighbors, on behalf of your creation and our fellow creatures...silent prayer) O God, our guide and help in difficult circumstances and places:

All: As Esther prayed faithfully and worked courageously for the deliverance of your people, strengthen us to confront the oppressor and free the oppressed, so that all people may know the justice and unity of your realm.

One: Redeeming Sustainer, visit your people and pour out your strength and courage upon us, that we may hurry to make you welcome not only in our concern for others, but by serving them generously and faithfully.

(The Lord's Prayer) Amen
