All: seeking justice and doing good. Let us worship God!

*HYMN#175 Seek Ye First Karen Lafferty, 1971

*CONGREGATIONAL PRAYER (based on Psalm 138)

One: Faithful God, we come into Your presence with thanksgiving, deeply grateful for the unfailing love and faithfulness you have shown toward us, Your people.

All: When we call out to You, You answer.

One: When we are exhausted, you give us the strength to go on.

All: When we find ourselves in trouble, you are there, standing beside us.

One: And so we come before you with gratitude and praise, offering you the worship of our hearts and lives.

All: Open our eyes to see and know you here among us; open our ears to recognize Your voice.

One: And then send us out from here, to live and work in the world as Your faithful disciples. In the name of Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord. Amen.

*WORDS OF AFFIRMATION

One: Hear the good news: God has forgiven us all our sins, erasing the record that stood against us with its legal demands.

PRAYER OF THE PEOPLE

One: People of God, as we come to prayer let us remember that we do not have to twist the arm of a reluctant God to seek good things for this world, nor find ways to persuade a distant God to come near and listen to us.

All: Let us remember that as we pray, we kneel alongside Jesus Christ, in the presence of God, with the help of the Spirit.

One: So, let us bring to mind now those people who are in need of our prayers: those who are ill, or anxious; those who are lonely or sad; those who are despairing or defeated; those who are hungry or homeless; those whose relationships are breaking apart; those who are bullied or abused; those who cannot find work; and those who are over-worked. In silence now, let us make our own specific prayers for those on our hearts and minds today. (silence) In the presence of God, alongside Jesus Christ, with help from the Spirit may we go into this week to live out our prayers through our lives.

All: Let us close with the prayer Jesus taught us saying: (The Lord's Prayer) Amen.

*HYMN Building A Community Christine Drake
(sung to the tune of HYMN#838 Standing on the Promises)

*Building a community of love and grace
Reaching out and drawing in we make a place
Where all can live in unity and find the space
To live and grow in such amazing grace*

CHORUS: Building, building, building a community of love and grace, Building, building, we're building a community of grace.

*Building a community where hope abounds. Where justice and compassion can be always found. Where all can celebrate their own humanity
Rejoicing in the joy of being free. [CHORUS]*

*Building a community where all belong Rich or poor or needy, whether weak or strong. We all can make a difference as we find our place
In this community of love and grace. [CHORUS]*

The bottom left photo is a circle of shelter-mates listening intently to the voice of Pat Kerrigan on KSRO describing the progress with fire containment and evacuations. Top left: is the sun obscured by all the smoke above our preschool & roses. Top right: Nancy Nelle and Nate Scoble provided soothing music. BIO: It is an honor to have Pat Kerrigan as our guest inspirational speaker today. She is a third-generation San Franciscan, who came to Sonoma County in 1980 and began her broadcasting career at a top-40 station. When the wildfires hit the North Bay in October, Pat was in the KSRO studio for 24 days on the air. She was the voice of Sonoma County when most other modes of communication were unavailable.
